

Crown of Life Christian Academy Professional Ethics Policy & Reporting Professional Misconduct Procedures

At Crown of Life Christian Academy (CoLCA) it is important that all employees work together as a team so that the rights and interests of both its families and employees are assured. Common sense, good judgment, and acceptable personal behavior on the part of all employees will make CoLCA a desirable place to serve. Annual in-service training, required to all personnel at CoLCA, will include a review of this policy, highlighting each worker's responsibility to conduct himself/herself in a professional manner and to report alleged professional misconduct following CoLCA's established procedures. All instructional personnel and administrators are required as a condition of employment to complete training on these standards of ethical conduct.

Crown of Life Christian Academy's Statement of Religious Beliefs and Convictions

Crown of Life Christian Academy (CoLCA) is a member of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS). As such, CoLCA believes, teaches, confesses, and holds firmly to all the teachings of Holy Scripture. All workers, volunteers, and students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with Holy Scripture and uphold the mission and educational philosophy of CoLCA. The promotion of activities and/or teachings that are inconsistent with WELS doctrine and practice will result in disciplinary action which may include dismissal, because such behavior violates the scriptural principles of the CoLCA Ethics Policy. The command of Christ is that His mission for the Church should be carried out according to His will and that in doing so, we maintain decency and order in our personal and professional lives. No practice or behavior inconsistent with or in conflict with individual moral and ethical conduct required by Scripture shall be tolerated from employees. Any failure to maintain these ethical and moral standards may be grounds for counseling and/or immediate dismissal from employment. Persons who hold positions of responsibility or positions that put them and CoLCA in the public eye are often regarded as role models and exemplars of Christian leadership. These people may be held to a stricter standard of behavior and practice than other employees in both their work and their personal lives. Counseling may be required, and these employees may face dismissal for behavior and practices deemed by CoLCA to be inappropriate to fulfilling their function as role model and leader in carrying out Christ's mission on earth. Acts of professional misconduct and violations to CoLCA's Ethic Policy include but are not limited to:

- Using obscene language
- Use of illicit/illegal drugs
- Use of alcohol on school grounds
- Displaying prejudice or bigotry
